Assistant Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer

The UNIVERSITY OF WEST GEORGIA, with its main campus in Carrollton and centers in Newnan and Douglasville, seeks an experienced administrative leader to serve as ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF ACCOUNTING OFFICER. This is an outstanding opportunity for an experienced and accomplished financial officer with significant potential to influence, shape, and advance the mission of UWG.
ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Since 1906, the University of West Georgia (UWG) has been home to those who seek a transformative college experience. UWG is a leading residential, doctoral comprehensive university that offers a broad undergraduate and graduate curriculum based on a liberal arts foundation.

Nestled among the pines on a picturesque 645 acres is the University of West Georgia—a hidden gem approximately 40 miles west of Atlanta. Serving approximately 13,000 students, and offering more than 100 programs, UWG is committed to advancing innovative academic programs and a student-centered business model.

Perennially ranked by U.S. News & World Report, the Princeton Review, and Colleges of Distinction as a top national university, West Georgia offers 86 fields of study, including business, computing, nursing, education, STEM, communication and digital media, social sciences, and the fine and performing arts. UWG generates a regional economic impact of more than $650 million annually and provides a safe, quality, and affordable university experience that connects students to post-graduate career and leadership opportunities.

UWG has been recognized by the Carnegie Foundation for its institutional commitment to community engagement through teaching, research and creative activities, and public service. West Georgia is one of only 119 U.S. colleges and universities to receive the elective classification in 2020 and is among only 359 institutions nationally.

Dedicated to creating a first-choice university for students, alumni, employees, and communities, UWG seeks a leader who will advance and support the University’s mission of fulfilling the talent needs of western Georgia and the Atlanta metropolitan area, while contributing to the social, cultural, and economic development of the region and state.

Our Mission and Values

The mission of the University of West Georgia is to enable students, faculty, and staff to realize their full potential through academic engagement, supportive services, professional development, and a caring, student-centered community.

The institutional mission and daily operation of the University of West Georgia are guided by our values that support our vision to be the best place to work, learn, and succeed: ACHIEVEMENT, CARING, COLLABORATION, INCLUSIVENESS, INNOVATION, INTEGRITY, SUSTAINABILITY, and WISDOM.
THE OPPORTUNITY

The Assistant Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer (CAO) is responsible for providing guidance and direction for accounting and financial matters of the University, including financial reporting, general accounting, accounts payable, public/private venture reporting, capital asset management, payroll, travel services, and other significant areas that may be added.

This administrator reports directly to the Vice President for Business and Finance (Chief Business Officer) and works closely in formulating and administering policy and procedures pertaining to all fiscal matters of the University, as well as supporting the programs and mission of the University.

The Assistant Vice President assists in achieving and maintaining financial stability, advances the mission and academic priorities, and enables the University to conduct itself as a prudent steward of the resources entrusted to it for the benefit of the student body, faculty, staff, alumni, and community. The CAO is responsible for ensuring that financial reporting is accurate, timely, and compliant with all accounting standards, and serves as the primary contact for external and state auditors. This key leadership position also serves as a developmental role for those seeking to become a Chief Business Officer in the future. A relocation allowance is provided.

- Coordinate with Student Accounts on key internal controls over daily cash receipting, student accounts, collections, and all receivables for the University, as well as working with other departments, such as the Registrar and Financial Aid, on common issues regarding policy or procedure.
- Provide overall leadership, supervision, and coaching to areas of responsibility, including the evaluation of performance in relation to strategic goals, and promote accountability and proper stewardship of all university funds.
- Develop and maintain excellent working relationships with all departments through understanding of their purpose and objective.
- Is responsible for all aspects of revenue/expense recognition and sources, and the use of application of various funding sources of specific program areas or areas in the administrative functions of the University, and assist in the formulation, development, and implementation of university policies and procedures.
Provide departments with guidance about financial matters to ensure needs are met in a timely and customer-focused manner.

Meet all institutional, Board of Regents, state, and federal reporting requirements within areas of responsibility.

Fulfill all other leadership responsibilities as assigned by Vice President for Business and Finance.

Brendan B. Kelly, Ph.D.
University of West Georgia President

Since becoming UWG’s eighth president in March 2020, Dr. Brendan Kelly has overseen the development and implementation of the Becoming UWG Strategic Plan for 2021–2026, which draws upon the University’s 117-year history and the input and feedback of more than 1,300 students, faculty, staff, alumni, supporters, community members, and other stakeholders to establish a path toward long-term growth and excellence.

With the plan comes a re-envisioned commitment for university stakeholders—to dedicate themselves to curate a first-choice university—following the three strategic priorities of relevance, competitiveness, and placemaking.

Prior to joining UWG, Dr. Kelly served as chancellor of the University of South Carolina Upstate, the largest regional comprehensive university in the USC system. During his tenure as Chancellor, USC Upstate attained the highest levels of enrollment in the history of the institution, launched a new strategic plan, and substantially increased fundraising for the institution’s endowment and annual fund.

Dr. Kelly is a practiced academic leader, previously serving in leadership roles—including Vice President of University Advancement—at the University of West Florida. Dr. Kelly began his academic career in 2000 at Eastern Michigan University, where he was Assistant Director of Forensics and a lecturer in the Department of Communication and Theatre Arts.

Holding both a Bachelor of Science in public relations and a master’s in communication from Eastern Michigan University, Dr. Kelly earned his doctorate in rhetoric and political communication from Wayne State University.

Equal Employment Opportunity: It is the policy of the University of West Georgia to follow federal law regarding affirmative action and equal opportunity. The University of West Georgia’s affirmative action program and related policies are developed in compliance with Executive Orders 11246 and 11375, as amended; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Sections 503 & 504) and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Title II) and their implementing regulations; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967; and the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as it amends 38 U.S.C. 4212.
